Character: Emotions and Motivations

Each sentence below describes a particular moment in a story. Complete each sentence by filling in two words to describe the emotions felt by the character in that moment and also the motivation (reason) for those emotions.

EXAMPLE
Ex. The girl felt angry and helpless when her parents told her the family was moving to Cincinnati because she had spent her whole life in her hometown and did not want to move.

"Checkouts"

1. The girl felt ______________________ and ______________________ while she was grocery shopping because ________________________________________.

2. The bagboy felt ______________________ and ______________________ after he dropped the jar of mayonnaise because ________________________________________.

3. The girl felt ______________________ and ______________________ when the bagboy did not speak to her the second time because ________________________________________.

"Raymond's Run"

4. Squeaky feels ______________________ and ______________________ when Gretchen and the girls confront her on the street because ________________________________________.

5. Squeaky feels ______________________ and ______________________ when Mr. Pearson talks to her about the race because ________________________________________.

6. Squeaky feels ______________________ and ______________________ after the race because ________________________________________.

"Stop the Sun"

7. Terry feels ______________________ and ______________________ when his father's eyes "go away" because ________________________________________.

8. Terry feels ______________________ and ______________________ in the hardware store because ________________________________________.

9. Terry feels ______________________ and ______________________ when he brings up the subject of Vietnam with his father because ________________________________________.